

ART from the ashes

Announces new exhibition:
INSPIRE
Opens November 20

(LOS ANGELES, CA) This winter, ART from the ashes (AFTA) will present INSPIRE, the organization's fourth fundraising exhibition. While past events have featured art that has been 100% donated by AFTA's talented collective of artists, INSPIRE intends to give back to the artists by sharing the majority of the proceeds from the sale of art with them. INSPIRE will also raise funds for the organization in order to help continue its efforts to support communities affected by wildfire.

INSPIRE will feature 47 artists, all of which have participated in past ART from the ashes exhibitions, and over 100 works of art. Works featured in the show will include an AFTA inspired piece, created from reclaimed fire site materials, as well as additional works from each artist. ART from the ashes wishes to honor these artists and profile their creative spectrum.

Following a successful exhibition this past June, the Glendale Redevelopment Agency has welcomed ART from the ashes back to a prime location on Brand Boulevard to present INSPIRE. In addition to festive opening and closing receptions, the gallery will host a series of public and private events throughout the run of show.

About ART from the ashes:

Formed in 2007, ART from the ashes is a 501 (c)(3) non-profit organization whose goal is to provide a cathartic avenue to communities affected by wildfire by transfiguring fire site debris into beautiful works of art. Through a network of volunteers and artists, artwork is crafted from salvaged materials and shown in a charity art exhibition. By engaging the talent of independent artists to bring these exhibitions to life, ART from the ashes also serves as a portal for artistic expression and exploration. INSPIRE is the organization's fourth exhibition.

ART from the ashes is supported by contributing artists, volunteers and donations.

ART from the ashes gallery is available for private event hire.
